

As stated earlier in the season, once February comes around, we lose use of the pool balcony and need to make adjustments to our schedule. For this week, the pool balcony wrestlers will only practice on Tuesday.

Starting February 6th, the pool balcony wrestlers will be only practicing on Mondays.

Please read the schedule below carefully there are quite a few changes. There are no more mini meets scheduled for the rest of the season. If you son will not be wrestling in any more tournaments, please return his singlet to practice. There are still a few people that owe fees for tournaments, etc. Please square those up in the week.
