

PARENTS AND PLAYERS PARTICIPATION AGREEMENT

Having signed below as the parent or guardian of the player who is participating in the Kanawha Valley Youth Basketball League I understand that I have agreed to have both myself and my child be bound by the rules of player and spectator participation in said Kanawha Valley Youth Basketball League. It is my understanding that the goal of the Kanawha Valley Youth Basketball League is to prohibit inappropriate behavior as listed below and I agree to cooperate with the League in meeting these goals or alternatively I agree to abide by the decisions of the governing body of said League to prohibit or limit my participation if in the sole discretion of the League I am violating either the rules or the spirit of the rules which are set forth to meet those goals. I understand that if a player (which may be my child) is ejected from a game that they will be disqualified to play in the next two games in which they attend, further said ejected player will be required to set on the bench in uniform during the two game suspension. In the case of a second offense, the player will be disqualified from further competition and attendance to games for that year. Coaches and other associated with a League Team who are ejected from a game or event will be referred to the executive committee for possible removal from the league and all activities. They must leave the facility at the time of ejection. Parents and/or spectators who are ejected must leave the facility. Any parent or spectator who is ejected or who is involved in Unsportsmanlike conduct they will be referred to the executive committee before being allowed to attend further activities. All parents who are referred to the executive committee because they have been ejected or because they have been accused of Unsportsmanlike conduct agree to abide by the decision of the executive committee. It is further understood and agreed that a child/player may be removed from a team or suspended because of the inappropriate actions of a parent. Unsportsmanlike conduct is defined without limitation as: booing or ridiculing officials, participants, and/or game administrators, using obscenities, racial slurs, Unsportsmanlike remarks, or gestures that are inappropriate or demeaning, interfering with pre-game, game, halftime, or post game conditions. Interfering is defined, without limitation, coming over to the bench area without permission, entering the playing floor, entering the locker-room, personally confronting a coach regarding his strategy or ability, personally confronting an official regarding his ability or game calling, personally confronting a League Official.
