LLGSL requires all coaches have some form of coaching certification. If you have not completed a training course for coaching, LLGSL will pay for at least one (1) such training course. You will need to complete the training before the start of the season.*

LLGSL reserves the right to conduct criminal background investigations on any volunteer acting on behalf of the league. If selected to manage a team, all on-field and dugout coaches selected by the manager to officially work with the team will be required to submit this application and should be aware a criminal background check may be conducted.

Have you ever been convicted of a sexual offense involving minor children (under the age of 18)?

Yes No

Are you listed on any state’s sexual crimes registry (e.g., Megan’s list)?

Yes No

Are you required to register with any law enforcement agency, because of a crime involving minor children (under the age of 18)?

Yes No

If you responded yes, the LLGSL reserves the option to contact you to discuss the matter privately. Responding yes to any of the above 3 questions could result in disqualification.

Completion of this form does not guarantee any position with the LLGSL. If you are selected for a managerial or coaching position, you will be expected to read and abide by the code of conduct set forth by the Loudoun County Parks, Recreation & Community Services (PRCS), as well as the rules and regulations of the associations to which the LLGSL is affiliated. Violation of any rules, regulations or points of conduct may result in your removal from the position to which you are appointed, in accordance with the current By-Laws of the Lower Loudoun Girls Softball League, Inc.

Also, if you are selected for a managerial or coaching position, you will be asked by the Board of Directors to perform other duties not directly related to coaching the sport of softball. Examples include but are not limited to field clean up and preparation, fund raising, requesting parents from your assigned team help with league functions, etc. Please do not apply if you are not willing to perform these types of duties (or others related to running a youth sports league) or communicating the need for parent involvement in LLGSL.

By signing below, you also agree to adhere to the requirements defined by the Board of Directors of the LLGSL in its by-laws, operations manuals or other directives.
