Long Island girls soccer top 10

Wednesday September 16, 2009 3:12 AM By Chris Mascaro

1. Islip (1-0): Katie Hyland scored with two seconds left in double overtime to give the Buccaneers a 1-0 win over East Islip, the defending Class AA Long Island champs. Ali Griffin made 12 saves for the shutout. Islip will continue its non-league slate with a trip to West Islip on Friday.

2. Massapequa (2-0): The Chiefs kicked off their season with a pair of 3-0 victories. They took down Hauppauge on Saturday and Conference I rival Garden City on Monday. Erica Modena assisted on goals by Rosie DiMartino and Andrea Arnold against Hauppauge, while DiMartino scored two second-half goals at Garden City.

3. South Side (1-0-1): Crystal Dunn (pictured above) scored the Cyclones' lone goal in a 1-1 tie with Garden City on Friday. Then on Monday, Dana Rosney had two goals and an assist in a 5-1 win at Oceanside in each team's Conference I opener.

4. Connetquot (1-0-1): Deanna Murino scored both goals for the Thunderbirds in their 2-1 season-opening win at Ward Melville on Friday. Monday, Murino scored Connetquot's lone goal 51 seconds into a 1-1 tie against North Babylon.

5. East Islip (2-1): Katelyn Koslosky made 10 saves in the season-opening loss to Islip on Saturday, but the Redmen bounced back with a 1-0 win over Deer Park and a 2-1 victory at Shoreham-Wading River yesterday. Kassie O'Brien scored the winning goal Tuesday.

6. Sacred Heart (0-0): The Spartans kick off their season at St. Francis Prep this afternoon.

7. Garden City (0-1-1): Kathleen Reilly's goal salvaged a 1-1 tie against South Side on Friday, but the Trojans were trounced in their conference opener by Massapequa, 3-1. They'll look to get into the win column this afternoon at Farmingdale.

8. St. Anthony's (0-0): The Friars will play host to St. John the Baptist in their season-opener this afternoon.

9. Oceanside (1-1): After a 3-0 win over Bellmore JFK on Friday, in which Danielle Rossi scored two goals, the Marines were handled by South Side, 5-1, on Monday.

10. Sayville (1-0): The Golden Flashes opened the season with a 1-0 victory over Ward Melville on Monday. Jessica Ferrier scored the game-winner 22 minutes into the second half.
