

YOUTH TACKLE CONFERENCE OF THE INLAND
EMPIRE, INC.
2009
Members Code of Conduct

In accordance with the Inland Empire Junior All American Football Conference (IEJAAFC) each participating member and parent must sign this Member Code of Conduct before being certified for participation.

I/We as a member of the _____ football program agree to adhere to the following:

I/We will not for any reason go on to the football field during practice and/or games unless summoned by the Head Coach or Team Athletic Director.

I/We will not use profanity, tobacco products or alcoholic beverages at any practice or game field in accordance with the IEJAAFC Conference rulebook. Violation of this rule can result in suspension from the league for my family including my child.

I/We will not approach or berate any game officials, league officials and/or conference board members. Violation of this rule can result in suspension from the league for my family including my child.

I/We agree to abide by the 24-hour "cool down" period prior to discussing concerns with my child's coaches after a game.

I/We understand that fighting is not tolerated and will result in immediate suspension or termination from the league.

I/We agree that the _____ football program is for the kids and should be free of adult ambition.

Local Authorities will be contacted and apprised of any threats of physical harm against children or adults, which can lead to arrest and/or prosecution.

The Inland Empire Junior All American Football Conference (IEJAAFC) has adopted a zero tolerance rule in handling behavior issues for the 2009 season. Any participant in IEJAAFC can be banned from participation in football or cheer if they or their parents/guardians demonstrate any disruptive behavior.

Both the football player and parent/legal guardian prior to participation in an IEJAAFC football game must sign this document.
