

The Yard Baseball Academy & Oregon Select Baseball's 2nd Annual Central Oregon Baseball Camp For Ages 8-18

The Yard Baseball Academy is coming to Central Oregon to offer you a complete Baseball Camp. This camp is geared towards helping ballplayers improve their skills and prepare them for the season. You will have the opportunity to get instruction from current professional and former college ball players. The camp will consist of one session of hitting and another session of defense and pitching/throwing mechanics.

In the camp you will learn the most current and up to date drills to help you prepare for the upcoming season. Take advantage of having these instructors share information that helped them succeed through every level they competed at. The off-season is the time to build up velocity, strength and mechanics to help make a very productive season.

Baseball Instructors:

Darwin Barney - Chicago Cubs Prospect infielder and former OSU Beaver
