

Kevin Primerano - Bio

Wednesday, January 14, 2009

Kevin Primerano comes to the Rogue Valley Soccer Club with a wealth of experience as both a soccer coach and administrator.

As the Manager of Academy and Player Development for the New York/New Jersey MetroStars (now Red Bull New York), Kevin directed the development and implementation of the MetroStars Player Development System which consist of youth camps and academies, competitive youth teams and reserve teams, with the goal of being the first vertically integrated player development system in Major League Soccer. To this day, the program serves as a model for the rest of Major League Soccer and its growth in the arena of youth development.

Prior to his tenure with the MetroStars, Kevin served as the Head Coach of the Boy's Varsity Soccer team at Southern Columbia High School in Catawissa, PA. Taking over the program in just its third year as a varsity sport he led them to a 36-24-4 record over three years, as well as two Pennsylvania Interscholastic Athletic Association District Four semi final appearances. During this time, he served a Striker Director for Joe Machnik's Number One Soccer Camps, one of the premier soccer camps in the United States.

Upon moving to the Rogue Valley, Kevin took the reigns of the Southern Oregon Fuego for three seasons.

Kevin played collegiate soccer for Pennsylvania State University, Hazleton Campus. He holds NSCAA State, Regional and National Licenses and is pursuing his Advanced National this spring. He has a Bachelors degree in Mass Communication from Bloomsburg University.

Kevin resides in Medford with his Wife Sarah and their eight-month old son Rocco.
