

Shout Out for Roni Ovarian Cancer Benefit Golf Tournament Hosted by the Southlake Girls Softball Association and the Fort Worth Batbusters

Join us to help support the effort to raise awareness and promote education about this little known disease. The 2009 Golf Tournament will benefit the National Ovarian Cancer Coalition in honor of Roni Lemos, the mother of Batbusters player Alyssa Lemos, who passed away from ovarian cancer in 2008. Ovarian cancer is called the silent killer due to subtle and confusing symptoms and the lack of early detection tests.
