

Dispute Resolution

It is mandatory that after any dispute all parties involved take a 24 (twenty-four)-hour cool off period

Player / Parent

Verbal discussion with coach away from the field / team-mates

Report to the convener

Complete and submit an Incident Report to the WYSC Vice-President of House League / Select

Written letter to WYSC President

Coach

Discuss with player, parent and/or referee

Report to the convener

Complete and submit an Incident Report to the WYSC Vice-President of House League / Select

Written letter to WYSC President

Convener

Discuss with player, parent, coach, and /or referee

Complete and submit an Incident Report to the WYSC Vice-President of House League / Select

Written letter to WYSC President

Letters received by the President will be read at the next regularly scheduled Executive meeting unless it is deemed necessary to call an emergency meeting for the current Executive to meet and deal with the dispute.

The current Executive will determine a course of action and the parties involved will be notified in writing.